Some random thoughts by the pastor...

It is easy to understand both passages to mean that we are to take the moral high ground. That is, as the one who is superior because we have not sinned (the other person has sinned) or as the one sinned Apparently, this way of understanding against. ourselves isn't new to us. It seems to be a human trait. God, however, invites us to first experience and accept that we are loved. When this experience comes first, then our conversations with others are between equals, and our words are not judgmental condemning. Rather. our words or are compassionate and loving. God is good.

Parish Updates: Bishop Tobin has announced that the Diocese will be having a capital campaign. The campaign will be staggered. The first group of parishes will begin the campaign (I believe) in January, 2018. As it stands now, the Diocese will receive 60% and parishes will receive 40% of the monies raised. I will pass along more information as it becomes available. Saint Mary Parish and Saints John & James Parish combined Faith Formation this month. It is a small step toward the three parishes joining efforts. CTK will combine Faith Formation with the two other parishes in September, 2018.
