Some random thoughts by the pastor….

I watch, with some frequency, American Pickers, as a diversion. I am surprised how often the collectors become hoarders; and how difficult it is for many to sell something that they haven't seen in 10, 20, or 30 years! They are said to have 'an emotional attachment to the item.' Somehow the item gives value to the person who 'owns' it. Truth be told, the item 'owns' them! We see this clearly in our Gospel story from Mark. The young man isn't a bad person. He is 'owned' by his possessions, so he goes away sad. When we are 'owned' by something, we are prevented from receiving. We have to possess or grab. Nothing can be received as a gift; nothing can be shared with another. We are sad because we cannot possess the Good News that God shares everything with us … we can only receive it. God is good.

Parish Updates: We will start 'Bible Study' on Monday, October 15th, at 7:00 pm in the Parish center (1st level). We will be using: The Great Themes of Scripture: Old Testament (Richard Rohr). No background is needed. All are welcome. We are grateful to Andy Taylor who installed new speakers in the church worship space. The speakers will help those who are sitting in the sanctuary better hear the readings and homily.
