Some random thoughts by the pastor....

Thérèse of Lisieux once reflected on today's Gospel story from Luke. She recognized that both the Pharisee and the publican live within us. Our ego always needs to compare and compete. It is only in this way that the limited human creation can survive. It needs a competitive and comparative atmosphere in order to breathe. We also are created divinely (we share in God's divinity). Breathing in the atmosphere created by divinity — though it shares some characteristics — requires a transformation. There is no comparisons or competitions. Our intrinsic value is a gift that is divinely given. Humility is experiencing our self as God experiences us. This leads to an ever greater openness and space. God is good.

Parish Updates: CTK Bazaar isn't far away! (November 23-24) The communal event provides us opportunities to connect with each other and enjoy all that the Bazaar has to offer: food, games, jewelry, baskets, inexpensive items, crafts, children's games, raffle tickets, split the pot, lottery tree, pastry, and more. We will be holding our annual Mass of Remembrance on Wednesday, November 6th, at 7:00 pm. All are invited to participate. We are grateful to John Gallogly and his staff for making the Mass possible.
