Some random thoughts ....

Once we know that we are correct, no one can convince us that another possibility exists. This is especially true in religion. When Jesus revisits Nazareth, in today's Gospel story from Luke, he offers a message and a way of living that cause some (possibly many) to accept initially. Once again, however, competition and comparison necessitate the religious authorities and other village people to 'put Jesus in his place'. He is nobody special. They know his parents. His family is poor and have no authority. 'God,' they are sure, 'cannot possibly be empowering Jesus.' We are easily offended when we make religion our god. God is good.

Parish Updates: Rumors concerning CTK – people tell me – continue to circulate. As I have in all of the years that I have been here, I will share with you anything and everything that is happening. If I am not sharing, it is because nothing new is happening. Ash Wednesday (this year) is on March 2, 2022. We will celebrate Mass (with ashes ... possibly ... or without ashes ... possibly) at 9:00 am & 6:00 pm.
