Some random thoughts ...

We cannot love God and hate or ignore people. Yet ... we think that we can! The teaching that we receive separates God (who we say is spiritual) from our daily lives (who we say is material). God lives in heaven. We live on earth. The two never meet. Jesus teaches the exact opposite. The spiritual (divine) and the material (human) are inseparable! Equality and mutuality come forth from the spiritual and the material being inseparable. Domination and inequality come forth from the spiritual and the material being separate. What is our experience? God is good.
