A convenient, consistent way to help our church grow

We are grateful to our parish community for all your support and prayers during this unprecedented time. When we are unable to gather to worship together, electronic giving helps stabilize our parish finances.

We currently have 28 families enrolled in the Bill Pay Program through their financial institutions. If you are already enrolled in the Bill Pay Program at your financial institution, the set up is a few quick steps! You select the frequency and dollar amount of your donation. The bank will generate a check and mail it to us as instructed. It's that simple ... you no longer have to worry about having the right change or writing a check each week. We have a box on our budget envelopes marked "I Gave Electronically", check the box and place it into the collection basket. Your consistent support is very much appreciated.

Some random thoughts ....

Fr. John LaPointe wrote a homily in March concerning Nicodemus, but his insights equally apply today with Thomas. He wrote, 'IN his questioning AND in his fears and doubts; Nicodemus (or in today's Gospel story, Thomas) is NOT turned away by Jesus, but is welcomed with understanding and compassion. And so today's liturgy reminds us that no matter where you and I may be stuck in one of life's dark shadows, God will send us light. God will never abandon us. God is always reaching out to us again and again. This is the heart of the Good News. God so loved the world that he sent Jesus to be our savior; that even when we were dead in our sins, God brought us back to life again through Christ. Jesus came into this world to save sinners without exception. In spite of our sins, in spite of our violence, in spite of our pride that tells us we don't need God, we are always God's children. This love has no strings attached – by grace we have been saved. Our faith is rooted in this absolute free gift of God, whose only wish is to restore us to the divine image. No one is ever outside the reach of God's mercy, no one.' God is good.

Parish Updates: Six young people are preparing to receive Communion for the first time. We will celebrate First Communion at the 10:00 Mass on Sunday, May 2nd. Unfortunately, we will forego the May Breakfast once again this year.
