Project Hand Up / Be the Change

is in need of non-perishable food items, paper products, and toiletries. Donation bins are located at the church exits.

Some random thoughts ....

The story in the Gospel of Mark, that we hear this weekend, can be interpreted in several ways. The most popular interpretation tells us that Jesus has power over the wind. This interpretation fits nicely with adjectives like all-powerful and almighty, words that are used to describe God and Jesus. Another way of interpreting the story views Jesus being one with the wind. The story of Job echoes this interpretation. Our first reading from Job describes Job as coming to a place where he is one with his suffering. The disciples and Job fight against the wind and suffering. Their conditions intensify rather than lessening. When Jesus accepts the wind and Job accepts suffering, they enter the eye of the storm, and calm follows. God is good.

Parish Updates: When Grandma's Attic reopens on July 10th (9:00 am to 1:00 pm), we will be doing our best to accommodate all who come to shop and those who are dropping things off. We are grateful and happy to see you! It might however be somewhat chaotic for the first couple of weeks. Please be patient with us. Thanks!

The first drawing of the 25 Week Club will happen on July 5th. Tickets are available at the Parish Office (401.821.9228). Thank you for supporting this helpful Parish fundraiser.

QUO VADIS

Quo Vadis Summer Camp
July 25-28, 2021

Quo Vadis Days is a camp for incoming 9th-12th grade boys (including recent graduates.) It seeks to empower young men through friendship, faith, and vocational discernment. "Quo Vadis" is Latin for "Where are you going?" Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question. We know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will. Where is God Calling you to go? How will you respond?
