Quo Vadis Summer Camp July 25-28, 2021

Quo Vadis Days is a camp for incoming 9th-12th grade boys (including recent graduates.) It seeks to empower young men through friendship, faith, and vocational discernment. "Quo Vadis" is Latin for "Where are you going?" Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question. We know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will. Where is God Calling you to go? How will you respond?

Some random thoughts

Our Gospel stories this weekend from Mark reflect stories about the prophets Elijah and Elisha during the time in which kings ruled Israel and Judah. The stories comment that the ruling class cause scarcity and death. The prophets (Jesus, Elijah and Elisha) offer an alternative. They draw upon the abundance of goods and life that the relationships of united people have. Community expands and is bountiful. The divide caused by 'might makes right' causes scarcity and death. The Gospel writer tells us that the authorities (doctors) took from the widow, making her destitute, but could not heal her. The official mourners see only death and ridicule Jesus when he sees life. As a community united with God and each other we share abundance and life. We share God with us. God is good.

Parish Updates:

As we progress to less restrictions (preventing Covid 19), I will no longer wear a mask while distributing Communion (weekend of July 3-4). Eucharistic ministers will continue to have a choice (to wear or not wear a mask).

Deacon Bill (Schofield) is taking a leave of absence for medical reasons. He is grateful for your prayerful support.

The first drawing of the 25 Week Club will happen on July 5th. Tickets are available at the Parish Office (401.821.9228). Thank you for supporting this helpful Parish fundraiser.
