Dear Parishioners,

In St. Luke's Gospel 21:1-38, there is a line where it states that "Jesus simply observed." Please know your pastor is not saying that "I am Jesus," but after a few very long months, I am kind of tired, but nothing that a few days can't cure.

At our parishes, Christ the King and St. Anthony's Picnic, I sat on my gravity chair simply observing, a part of me said, "Go around and say hi to the people and the other part said, just observe."

To be honest with you, for the first time, even before the mergers, I let the stress and anxiety that come with this difficult process, go!

I loved watching everyone together. I am always mindful of the differences of the two parishes that I have been entrusted with, but we are Catholics and that is the only thing that matters.

I loved watching people who haven't seen each other for years, reconnect, I loved watching the joking around of our cooks and servers, I loved the children on the waterslide! P.S. I was going to go down the waterslide, then I saw the water and I said, "No way, kid's germs, gross!" lol

I love the fact, because of your sacrifice and support of your parishes, we were able to do this. As your pastor, I want to take this opportunity to sincerely thank everyone involved, may this be the first of many endeavors together.

I truly delegate to God, our Father, our King, what I cannot express in words, which is my heartfelt gratitude.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Victor
