Faith Formation

An email has been sent to all families previously in the program with a link to register for the 2020/2021 Faith Formation Classes. If you have not received an email with the link, please reach out to Gina at the email listed below and she will send you the link. If you do not have internet access, please contact the office and we will mail a registration form. If you have not joined the BAND App yet, please do so. Gina will use this App to keep parents informed. You may email Gina at gvessella.ckkww@gmail.com for the activation code.

If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact Gina Vessella, Faith Formation Coordinator at gvessella.ckkww@gmail.com, call the parish office at 401.821.9228, or visit our parish website, ckkwwri.org!

We are truly grateful to our parish community for all your support and prayers during this unprecedented time.

When we are unable to gather to worship together, electronic giving helps stabilize our parish finances.

We currently have 27 families enrolled in the Bill Pay Program through their financial institutions. If you are already enrolled in the Bill Pay Program at your financial institution, the set up is a few quick steps! You select the frequency and dollar amount of the payment (donation). The bank will generate a check and mail it to us as instructed. It's that simple ... you no longer have to worry about having the right change or writing a check each week. We have a box on our budget envelopes marked "I Gave Electronically", check the box and place it into the collection basket. Your consistent support is very much appreciated.

Some random thoughts

James Finley offers us an example that can help us understand both our first reading from Isaiah and our Gospel story from Matthew. Imagine yourself, he suggests, that you are standing in front of a full length mirror, and imagine the image of you (in the mirror) is conscious, that the image (in the mirror) can think. And this image of you (in the mirror) has been through a lot of therapy; the image has taken a lot of courses on being an insightful image. And (the image in the mirror) has come to a point in which (the image) informs you (the origin of the image) that you are no longer needed.

"You say to the image of you (in the mirror), "Well, you know, this is going to be rough, really, since you are an image of me."

"No," the image in the mirror says, "I've worked on this; I've come to this point (where I can be separate from you)."

'And so, to gently help the image out, you step halfway off the side of the mirror; and half of the image disappears. The image (in the mirror) has a panic attack and goes back into therapy and says to the therapist, "I'm not real! I'm not real! I was working on my affirmations. I bolstered up my confidence, but I don't know where I went. I can see only half of me!"'

This, the Scriptures tell us, is what God does for us. We are the image of God (the origin of our image) but sometimes we want to believe that we create our own image. When we do, God takes a step halfway off of the mirror. God never completely leaves, but in our panic we feel like we have been abandoned, and suffering happens to us. Simultaneously, love continues to be present. The gaze of God catches our eye, and we experience that we are loved. God is good.

Parish Updates: Our Trustees and Finance Committee have accepted last fiscal year's report. This is the report that we submit to the Diocese. The Parish report will be available the weekend of October 17-18. We did enter deficit spending as a result of the pandemic, but due to your generosity the deficit spending wasn't too great. We borrowed from CTK's Maintenance savings to offset the negative income ($8,000), but we intend to gradually replace what was borrowed. More details will be available when the Parish report is published.
