Some random thoughts ....

Almost from the beginning the question, 'Who is my neighbor?' begs to be answered, and the answer keeps changing. People's point-of-view changes who is neighbor. An extreme is no one is neighbor. Everyone serves me. An equal and opposite point-of-view says everyone is neighbor. I serve everyone else. What is most real is God relates and embraces everyone and all of creation as neighbor. God serves us. Jesus the Christ is the image of God serving us. Jesus holds the tension that exists between no one is neighbor and everyone is neighbor. Holding the opposites in tension with each other causes suffering and creates compassion. God is good.

Parish Updates: We have mailed Bazaar raffle tickets to everyone registered as a parishioner of CTK. We would love to have people gathering for our annual Bazaar, but a concern to keep everyone safe prevents us. Again, this year the prizes are monetary only. The monies raised will benefit the ongoing expenses of CTK. Thank you for your generosity and good luck!
