Some random thoughts ....

Love and justice are married. Separated, love becomes sentimental and justice becomes cold and impersonal. The prophet, Jeremiah acknowledges the need for the two working together. We call it the need for the common good. The prophet tells the people that they have made a finite reality an absolute and the finite reality cannot sustain them. Jesus says something similar. He invites and encourages us to allow the infinite absolute to claim us. Then, when the natural sufferings and horrors of life affect us, our experience of the infinite absolute will sustain us. All that is eternal is the flow of God. God is good.

Parish Updates: Christmas falls on a Saturday. We will offer a 4:00 Mass on Christmas Eve (a Friday) and a 10:00 on Christmas morning (a Saturday). There will be NO 4:00 Mass on Saturday afternoon and NO Reconciliation on Saturday afternoon. We will keep to our usual schedule on Sunday morning (8:00 & 10:00).
